Increasingly we are learning of the great health benefits of tea and we should encourage our parents to enjoy these benefits too!

Researchers claim that Tea can help shed belly fat and improves dental health. The antioxidants promote heart health and naturally occurring components help battle dementia.

Wow! Who would have thought!

Tea has anti-aging qualities, naturally lowers stress levels, and improves brain function and one's physical endurance!

Packaged in a coloured box measuring 9 x 6 x 3.5cm.
