Description

These biscuits are baked by Burton's Biscuit Co in Birmingham UK. They have been lovingly baked by Burton's for over 60 years.

These delicious shortcake sandwiches filled with a sticky splat of 'Jammie' mischief are loved by all, young and old, making them a great addition to any family biscuit tin!

"Baking great quality biscuits is, and always has been, at the heart of what we do, but Burton's is so much more than that. We also believe in making every day more of a treat for our local communities, and we continue to build a culture and company like no other." BURTON'S BISCUITS
