The product description is generated by the system and is not intended to be used as a legal document. It is for informational purposes only.

In a cheerful colour with a gorgeous smiling face, this desk buddy is shaped similar to a snowman and being rather weighty, will wobble away with a little push.

It is sure to lift Dad's spirits just by being there. ... but there is more - lift off his head and you are holding a highlighter pen and encased within the base are paperclips.

The printing tops all this through with 'YOU Always Make Me Smile!'

Measures 6 across at widest and weighs a mighty 130gm!
